Julienne, allumette, or french cut, is a culinary knife cut in which the food item is cut into long thin strips, similar to matchsticks. Common items to be julienned are carrots for carrots julienne, celery for céleris remoulade, or potatoes for Julienne Fries.. Trimming the ends of the vegetable and the edges to make four straight sides makes it easier to produce a uniform cut.

Allumettes [al-yoo-MEHTS] are another one of my favorites. The thin layer of royal icing spread on the surface before being baked highlights the butter flavor of the puff pastry and turns it into something extraordinary. I like allumettes plain, served with a good cup of espresso or filled with cream and slightly acidic fruit.
