For as many people as live in the city, using public transportation, walking the streets, Tokyo is an amazingly clean city, especially if you remember the paucity of wastebaskets (or dust ports, in the local parlance). Many people-not all, but most-are conditioned to take their trash home with them, even when it's inconvenient.

All of pianist Barry Harris' Xanadu records of the 1970s are gems, featuring the bop master in particularly inspired form. Many of the Xanadu artists toured Japan in 1976, resulting in several records, including Harris' Live in Tokyo and this LP. This album of leftovers not released on the other sets sticks to bebop standards.
