The Sassmannshaus String Method During the last four decades more than half a million children have been “getting started” with the Sassmannshaus Early Start method, Bärenreiter’s tutors for violin, viola and cello. These popular volumes have become classics among string methods worldwide.

The Sassmannshaus String Method - Bärenreiter

In his Early Start on the Violin Book 2, Sassmannshaus has these patterns written out on p. 35. Once you can play a scale in first position, without open strings, you can transfer that to anywhere on the violin, and this is one way to start practicing in different positions. You can do the same thing for simple songs with no open strings.
