"mermaid" to "La

Sirenita" in Spanish.

Siren is a much more seductive and

dangerous creature,

little or matured, this

tale can be read as the

idealized female

version of romantic

sacrifice, instead of being a failed

enterprise for female

entrapments (as Sirens

would naturally do).

The story follows the journey of a young mermaid who trades her beautiful voice for the love of a human

prince and the chance to gain an eternal soul.

The tale was first published in 1837 as part of a collection of

fairy tales for children.
